

UNDERSTANDING INTELLIGENCE

Examination 2. Forensic Science

1. What is forensic science?
 - a. The application of psychic powers to law
 - b. The application of law to psychic powers
 - c. The application of law to science
 - d. The application of science to law

2. Which of the following is used in forensic science?
 - a. Geological studies
 - b. DNA studies
 - c. Arson studies
 - d. All of the above can be used

3. How can DNA be described?
 - a. As an all-in-one proof of criminal activity
 - b. As a uniquely identifying genetic blueprint
 - c. As a non-useful entity in forensic science
 - d. As a time-consuming tool that takes 6-8 weeks to analyze

4. Which is not a problem with DNA that was noted by the National Commission on the Future of DNA Evidence?
 - a. The uniformity of the collection and logging of DNA samples
 - b. The backlog of untested samples
 - c. The inappropriate prioritization of database sample collection and testing
 - d. The limited use of DNA in non-suspect cases

5. What is used in the first step of DNA extraction?
 - a. Saline
 - b. Water
 - c. Detergent
 - d. Solvent

I certify that I have personally completed this test and the answers are my own.

Completed By:

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Forensics
Module 2

Return To: Eye Spy Publishing, PO Box 10, Skipton, N Yorks BD23 5US UK
OR USA to Eye Spy Publishing Ltd, 350 5th Ave, 3304-22H, NY NY 10118